Pickard said Canby High School has the potential to be a good team because of the fine facility they play in. But the team should be prepared more to show spectators. "We could use and more of the student help to support us," said Pickard. "The more help we could get, the more dedicated we'll be."

Pickard's team has made responsibility to himself and his players. He means that they are there on campus to get personal help from him. "I want to provide the best possible basketball program that I can," he said.

Pickard doesn't know if he will coach at Canby High School next year. He said he has received lots of offers and is also offered to go to the University of Oregon. He said he will go to the University of Oregon to play basketball and to coach.
